

Legislation Text

File #: 23-054, Version: 1

Transportation resilience planning

ACTION REQUESTED: Discussion

PURPOSE & ACTION: The Transportation Resilience Improvement Plan is a multi-year project to understand system vulnerability to climate change, develop strategies to integrate climate resilience into management and investment decisions, and chart the direction of the agency's work for years to come. An overview will be provided of past efforts, including a recent plan developed with the Central Council of Mayors, that can help inform the direction of this work.